

WE SWEEP BY VOLUNT STORM

Break Over S. P.
Delays Traffic
Six Hours

Great Salt Lake in the vicinity of the city of Ogden, Utah, Tuesday afternoon, during the storm, just as railroad officials reported. Numerous waves broke over the trestle, and the train was delayed for more than six hours. Extra crews were put to work along the trestle to clear the structure. The water was from five to eight feet deep and it has been four years since the last time the water had subsided. The wind was from the west and west over the trestle and the water was reported on time today. The water was done, railroad officials were at work today repairing the trestle to the telephone and telegraph lines.

Idaho, May 26.—The worst of the worst windstorms in the history of Idaho visited this part of the state for several days. The main items damaged were the main items damaged. This will not be insignificant. The storm was followed by rain, with some clearing this morning.

MINERS MAY HOLD PARADE

Demonstration to Follow
Recall of Deputies, Reports Indicate

SALT LAKE CITY, May 26.—Unofficial reports reaching here from Price and other points in Carbon county state that the striking miners proposed to parade Sunday and show their full strength. They will, the reports indicate, march from camp to camp. This plan, it is believed, is predicated on the withdrawal of hundreds of the miners. Mr. special deputy sheriff announced as contemplated for Saturday by the county commission. The commission has concluded that it has not the funds to continue employing the special deputies and has decided to recall them. It is now considering the question of whether it is necessary to preserve order in the camps.

MAN HUNTERS NAB SUSPECTS

Three Negroes Held for Identification By White Woman

WACO, Texas, May 26.—Officers in the man hunt east of Waco have taken three negroes into custody and are holding them for possible identification as the men who killed Harrell Bolton and assaulted Miss Margaret Hays, his companion, Thursday night. The negroes will probably be spirited away to safety from possible violence until Miss Hays can see them, officers said.

HONEY GROVE, Texas, May 26.—Efforts to lynch Will Mason, negro, held in jail here on suspicion following an attempted assault upon a white woman here Wednesday, apparently had been abandoned today. After milling about the jail until late hour Thursday night, a mob which gathered after the negro had been arrested dispersed, the members returning to their homes.

The negro was taken before the woman Thursday, but she was unable to identify him as her assailant.

CEREAL FOOD CO. IS REORGANIZED

At a special meeting of directors and officers of the Utah Cereal Food company held at the Weber club Thursday the resignation of Lucian A. Ray as vice president and director was accepted and the resignation of L. T. Whitney as secretary-treasurer was also accepted, it was announced today.

Mr. Whitney will remain as a director of the company, it is stated.

Jack Browning of Ogden was named as vice-president of the company to succeed Mr. Ray.

A secretary-treasurer will be named at the next meeting which will be held during the early part of June. Albers brothers are now operating the cereal food company's plant here.

WARRANT ISSUED AGAINST S. L. MAN

A complaint charging W. S. Kyle of Salt Lake with reckless driving has been issued as the result of an accident near Pleasant View Wednesday night when Kyle's car crashed into a machine driven by Ray Shurtliff, Ogden mechanic. No one was badly hurt in the crash, but the machines were damaged.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Tout left for Salt Lake today to serve a warrant upon Kyle. His bond has been set at $50.

CITY EXECUTIVES INVITED TO OGDEN

Mayors of all cities in the intermountain district were invited today by Secretary Jesse S. Richards of the Ogden chamber of commerce to be the guests of the chamber at the district convention of the United Commercial Travelers in Ogden, June 8, 9, and 10. Presidents of the various commercial clubs and chambers of commerce together with members of the Rotary, Kiwanis, Progressive Business and other clubs have also been invited.

RELEASE OF WILEY ORDERED BY CHIEF

Chief of Police Curtis A. Allison last night telegraphed the authorities at Suisun Cal. to release T. W. Wiley, arrested at that place on the charge of having obtained goods in Ogden while he was here on false pretenses. Through his attorney Wiley forwarded a certified check amounting to $334.25 in payment for goods received from the Glen Bros.-Roberts Piano company and from Mary Gajewsky.
